

Case study: Freshfields Bruckhams Deringer

The Brief

- To create 250+ stimulating workspaces
- To design and create 125+ breakout and touchdown spaces
- To re-use and rehome existing furniture where possible
- Research, select and specify most appropriate products
- Create active workspaces incorporating adjustable design
- Implement user testing for feedback
- Organise on site furniture show and collect feedback
- Eliminate redundant furniture landfill
- Deliver Ska compliant project

Our Solution

- Project management working architects and OMG Consulting
- Phased delivery per floor - out of hours delivery
- Furniture hand-picked from marketplace
- Power enabled desking as standard
- Design documents created and agreed
- Product testing and sampling
- Inclusive warranty maintenance
- Old furniture re-use, re-sale and rehoming
- LEED and BREAM points for sustainable buildings

Furniture Supplied

Create effective work and study spaces including:

- Staff administrative areas and offices
- Teaching rooms
- Canteen
- Breakout and collaborative spaces
- Personal lockers
- Art rooms and laboratories
- Laboratories

Project Manager Testimonial

“Designed with a people centred approach, well-being and sustainability at the core, this project delivered on every level” - Paul Cox

Case study:
Freshfields Bruckhams Deringer

JPA® Workspaces